

God's Mission in Uruguay- February, 2017 Edition

Kenneth Green

So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded.
You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God,
you will receive what he has promised.

Hebrews 10:35-36

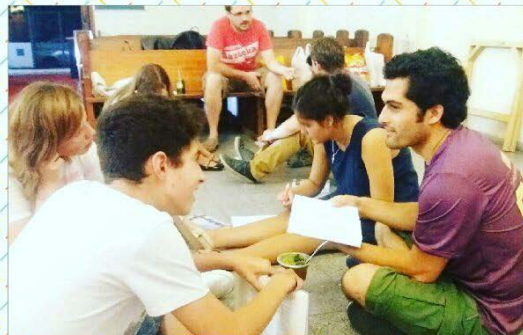

Confidence

The last couple of weeks has been a huge time of transition. From leaving Guatemala, to returning to the United States for a few days, to moving to Uruguay. The time has been a little tough but I have been greatly encouraged by God that everything is in his hands. I've found in my life that when God leads, everything works out for the best. It is amazing to see that in reality down here in Uruguay. The church has been one that has followed God through all of its time and God has richly blessed them. The congregation is growing, the school is thriving, and there are fiercely passionate and wonderfully gifted of leaders here at San Pablo. It's an example of a church that has put their confidence in God and is being richly rewarded.

Confidence in God is holding fast to the teachings of Jesus and the Bible, as well as abiding in faith in Jesus Christ. It is also continually looking towards God in the midst of troubling times and temptation. We cannot and should not put our confidence in the world because the world is full of trouble, pain, and sin. If we begin to put our confidence in the world we are putting our trust and foundation in temporal things that will ultimately leave us empty. Especially with the events of the world we see everyday in the news, we should be clinging to God in confidence that much more. Our salvation is assured. Jesus died but rose again, He is alive! We have nothing to fear of this world any longer. We have confidence in the Lord.

I was able to go to my first official youth group gathering with Jusanpa this past Friday.

My responsibilities:

For this first month I will be mainly observing and just actively participating in the church groups down here in Uruguay. This is to allow me to observe how they do things in their culture and to adapt and prepare to teach in their culture. During this time, I will be actively seeking out times to be in outreach and connect with people outside the church and build relationships in order to be an open ear when

Carnival

This upcoming weekend is a holiday weekend for the Carnival season here in Uruguay. With this short pause I have the opportunity to travel to Buenos Aires for the weekend to be a part of their Carnival as Uruguay's big celebration night isn't until the following weekend. I will be meeting with a friend from Guatemala who invited me to enjoy the weekend with him.
