

God's Mission in Uruguay- May, 2017 Edition

Kenneth Green

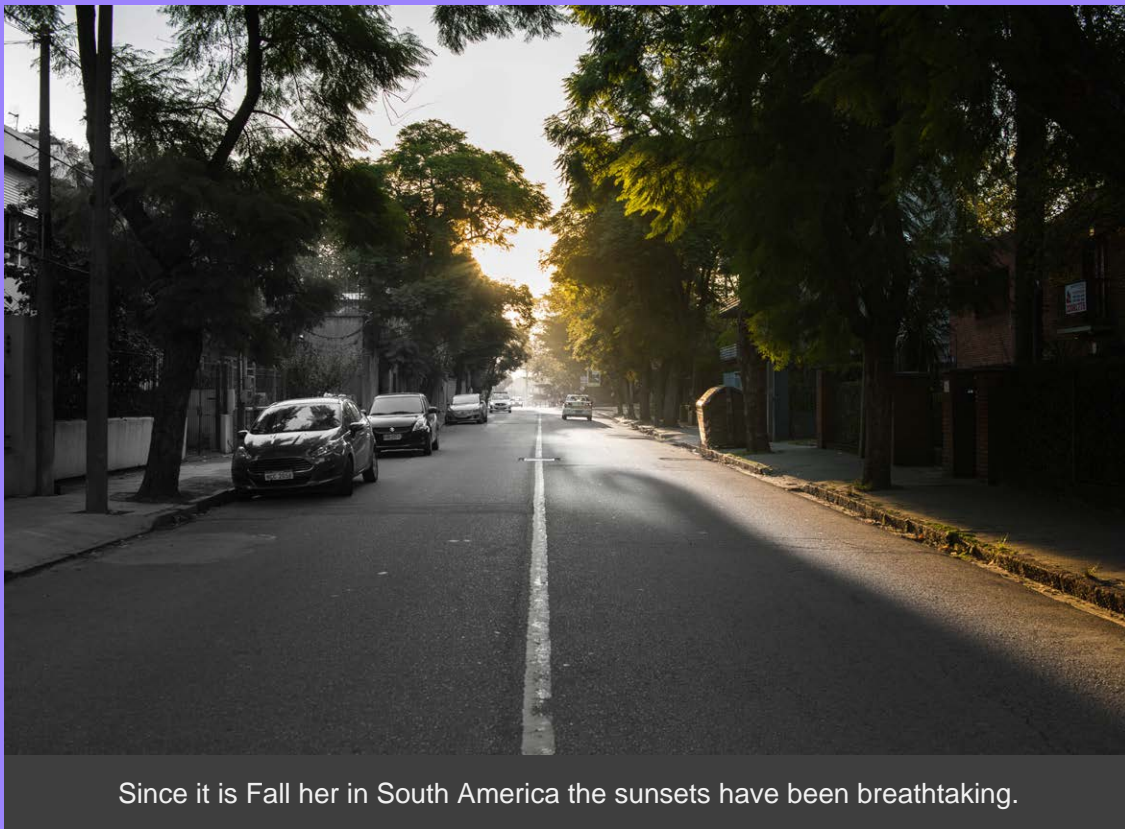

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!"

Isaiah 6:8

God's Call

The process of a call from God is not merely one of where He is calling one to, but also what He is calling one to. For me here in Uruguay the call has not been just that He has called me to San Pablo, but also to a purpose in San Pablo. The where aspect of the call had been answered for more than a year but the what was not clear until recently. That "what" is His calling one to do can be revealed only you are in the midst of the call. Sometimes going into a call you think you know what you are going to be doing in the call but how many times do things go according to plans in our lives? Personally, things have never gone according to plan for me but that is alright because what I thought was the plan was what I envisioned my call to be and not what God planned the call to be.

For us Christians we all had our first call from God when He called us into the faith and called us to be His children. Since then, that call has been and always will be our primary calling in life. Other calls appear throughout time but the call of a life in Christ always remains in our life as long as we remain in him. The process of the call seems to be go in one of these two ways. Who (God's calling us to life in Him)-Where-What or Who-What-Where. We are always going through a call process in our lives as His plans for us are revealed more and more each day. My prayer for you is that whatever call you are in the midst of going through that you remain in peace and patience as sometimes the call can be difficult to understand.

Since it is Fall here in South America the sunsets have been breathtaking.

Things Happening at San Pablo

May was a pretty quiet month for San Pablo. People have settled into the routine of the school year and there were not major holidays this past month. The school did host a community yard sale, in which the Men's Group participated to raise funds for a retreat they are planning.

May also saw the goodbye of the Sharp family, for a time, as they returned to the United States on furlough and to raise funds for their next deployment here in Uruguay starting in August.

Ministry Update

During the month of May the other Jusanpa leaders and I began planning out the lesson schedule for the month of June and the change in structure for Jusanpa. We believe that we have a good structure in order for the beginning and will see how the change goes starting with the first Friday in June.

Also during May I had the opportunity to teach a couple of the Catechesis classes on the Third Article of the Apostle's Creed. I felt there was room for improvement as some of the more technical terms I did not know the word for in Spanish. Because of this Andre and I have decided I will take some more classes on Spanish to work on some more technical aspects of Spanish to fine tune me to be able to communicate the complex ideas of the faith easily.

God's direction: I am beginning to consider if God is leading me to serve
